INTRODUCTION

For the reasons set forth below, the statements contained in the Declaration of Jerry S. Goldman, Esq., with Exhibits appended thereto (“Goldman Declaration”), which is being filed contemporaneously with this Memorandum of Law, as well as those set forth in prior motions for damages made on behalf of other O’Neill wrongful death plaintiffs, plaintiffs in the above-captioned matter who are identified in annexed Exhibit A and annexed Exhibit B to the Goldman Declaration (the Plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit A and Exhibit B are collectively referred to herein as the “Moving Plaintiffs”)¹ by and through undersigned counsel, respectfully move this Court for an Order:

(1) determining that service of process in the above-captioned matter was properly effected upon the Taliban; AND,

(2) awarding the Plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit A and Exhibit B damages judgments against the Taliban in the same amounts previously awarded by this Court to various similarly situated plaintiffs in Burnett, Havlish, Ashton, Bauer, O’Neill, and other cases against the Islamic Republic of Iran (“Iran”) (except subject to trebling damages as indicated below); AND,

(3) awarding solatium damages to those Plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit A in the amounts of $12,500,000 per spouse, $8,500,000 per parent, $8,500,000 per child, and $4,250,000 per sibling, as set forth in annexed Exhibit A; AND,

(4) awarding the estates of the 9/11 decedents, through the personal representatives and on behalf of all survivors and all legally entitled beneficiaries and family member of such 9/11 decedents, as identified by the Plaintiffs set forth in annexed

¹ Exhibit B contains only one (1) estate but if a related Motion to Add Parties is granted, Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend Exhibit A and Exhibit B to include additional plaintiffs.

Exhibit B, compensatory damages for pain and suffering in the same per estate amount previously awarded by this Court regarding other estates of decedents killed in the September 11th attacks, as set forth in annexed Exhibit B; AND,

(5) awarding compensatory damages to those Plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit B for decedents' pain and suffering in an amount of $2,000,000 per estate, as set forth in annexed Exhibit B; AND,

(6) awarding the estates of the 9/11 decedents, through their personal representatives and on behalf of all survivors and all legally entitled beneficiaries and family member of such 9/11 decedents, as identified in annexed Exhibit B, an award of economic damages in the amounts as set forth in annexed Exhibit B; AND,

(7) awarding treble damages pursuant to the Anti-Terrorism Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2333(a) in the amounts set forth in the annexed Exhibit A and Exhibit B; AND,

(8) awarding the Moving Plaintiffs prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually for the period from September 11, 2001 until the date of the judgment for damages; AND,

(9) granting the Moving Plaintiffs permission to seek punitive damages, economic damages, and other appropriate damages, at a later date; AND,

(10) granting permission for all other Plaintiffs and Proposed Additional Plaintiffs in these actions not appearing in annexed Exhibit A and Exhibit B to submit applications for damages awards in later stages, to the extent such awards have not previously been addressed.

As the awards set forth in the attached Proposed Order represent the only direct recovery against the Taliban on behalf of the Moving Plaintiffs for the claims herein, any award issued to those individuals will constitute final awards and judgments against the Taliban for the Moving Plaintiffs.

I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. Applicable Orders

This motion is being submitted in accordance with various procedural orders entered by this Court, and the form of this motion and the relief requested herein are intended to comply with various orders of this Court, including the following:

- a. The Court's January 24, 2017 Order, ECF No. 3435, requiring that "[a]ll further motions for final judgment against any defaulting defendant shall be accompanied by a sworn declaration attesting that the attorney has (1) complied with the due diligence safeguards [referenced in Section II.D. of the January 23, 2017 letter from the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, ECF No. 3433] and (2) personally verified that no relief has previously been awarded to any plaintiff included in the judgment (or, if relief has been awarded, the nature of that relief)."
- b. Magistrate Judge Maas' July 30, 2012 Report & Recommendation, ECF No. 2618, and this Court's October 3, 2012 Order, ECF No. 2623, adopting the Report & Recommendation in its entirety concerning the award of damages;
- c. The Court's October 14, 2016 Order, ECF No. 3363, concerning the amounts of solatium damage awards.
- d. The Court's October 14, 2016 Order, ECF No. 3362, related to Bauer v. Al Qaeda Islamic Army, 02-CV-7236 (GBD)(SN) and Ashton v. al Qaeda Islamic Army, 02-CV-6977 (GBD)(SN).
- e. The Court's August 23, 2021 Order, ECF No. 7067, setting forth procedures for filing confidential information relating to damages under seal.

B. Related Cases

Relying on evidence and arguments submitted by plaintiffs in In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, 03-md-1570, the consolidated multidistrict litigation arising out of the September 11th attacks, this Court, on April 7, 2006, May 12, 2006, December 22, 2011, and again on October 13, 2015, granted Orders of Judgment on Liability in favor of certain of the Federal Insurance, Burnett, Ashton, Havlish, and O'Neill groups of plaintiffs against the Taliban

(see ECF Nos. 1754-56, 1782-1797, 2516, 3067). This Court also considered the issue of damages suffered by the Havlish plaintiffs and their decedents. Upon the Havlish plaintiffs' submissions, on October 3, 2012 this Court found, among other things, that "Plaintiffs may recover for [, inter alia,] solatium...in an action under Section 1605A. 28 U.S.C. § 1605A(c)(4). In such an action, ...family members can recover solatium for their emotional injury; and all plaintiffs can recover punitive damages." ECF No. 2623 at 2-3, quoting Valore v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 700 F. Supp. 2d 52, 83 (D.D.C. 2010). This Court also found that the following solatium awards for family members are appropriate, as an upward departure from the framework in Est. of Heiser v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 466 F. Supp. 2d 229 (D.D.C. 2006):

Relationship of Decedent	Solatium Award
Spouse	$12,500,000
Parent	$8,500,000
Child	$8,500,000
Sibling	$4,250,000

ECF No. 2623 at 4.

The Court has applied the same solatium values to claims of other solatium plaintiffs in Burnett (ECF Nos. 3666, 4023, 4126, 4146, 4175, 5061, 5062, 5087, 5138, and 5356) and other solatium plaintiffs in other cases coordinated in the In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001 multidistrict litigation against Iran and against the Taliban. See, e.g., ECF Nos. 2618, 2623, 2624, 3175 at 2, 3300 at 1, 3358 at 9, 3363 at 16, 3399, and 3977 at 7.

In that same decision in Havlish, this Court also found that Plaintiffs are entitled to punitive damages under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act ("FSIA") in an amount of 3.44 multiplied by their compensatory damages award. ECF No. 2623 at 5. The Court has applied that 3.44 multiplier also to judgments in Ashton. See ECF No. 3175 at 3 (Report and Recommendation to apply 3.44 punitive multiplier); ECF No. 3229 at 1 (Order adopting in its entirety Report and Recommendation to apply 3.44 punitive multiplier). The Court applied the 3.44 punitive multiplier to the compensatory awards previously awarded in Burnett. ECF No. 3666. However, in Hoglan, another case in this multidistrict litigation, Magistrate Judge Netburn recommended that the plaintiffs' request for punitive damages be denied without prejudice. ECF Nos. 3358 at 11-16, 3363 at 28. Judge Daniels adopted Magistrate Judge Netburn's Report and Recommendation in its entirety. ECF Nos. 3383 at 2, 3384 at 6.

In the Havlish decision, this Court also found that prejudgment interest was warranted for the Plaintiffs' solatium damages. ECF No. 2623 at 5. The Havlish plaintiffs sought application of a 4.96% interest rate, which the magistrate judge recommended (ECF No. 2619 at 13-14) and Judge Daniels adopted (ECF No. 2623 at 5). In Ashton, plaintiffs sought, and the magistrate judge recommended, application of a statutory nine percent simple interest rate for prejudgment interest. ECF No. 3175 at 7-8. Judge Daniels adopted the magistrate judge's report and recommendation and applied the nine percent interest rate in multiple instances in Ashton and Bauer. See ECF Nos. 3229 at 2; 3300 at 1; 3341 at 1. However, in Hoglan, Magistrate Judge Netburn recommended that the 4.96 percent rate for prejudgment interest should be applied to all solatium claims. ECF Nos. 3358 at 17-20; 3363 at 28-29. Judge Daniels adopted Judge Netburn's Hoglan Report and Recommendation in its entirety and applied an interest rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually. ECF Nos. 3383 at 2, 3384 at 6. The Court applied that interest rate, 4.96 percent per annum, to other plaintiffs' awards in Burnett.

C. O'Neill Plaintiffs Herein - Liability

Plaintiffs herein filed suit and duly served the Taliban pursuant to publication orders, previously filed as of record, under ECF Nos. 445 and 488. The Clerk's Office, upon Plaintiffs' applications, issued Clerk's Certificates of Default. See ECF No. 3043-4.

As set forth below, the Moving Plaintiffs filed motions for default judgments against the Taliban for liability. Such motions were granted, with leave to seek a determination of damages at a later date.²

II. DAMAGES – GOVERNING LAW

A. Background

According to the caselaw governing terrorism litigation, the “estates of those who [died] can recover economic losses stemming from wrongful death of the decedent; family members can recover solatium for their emotional injury; and all plaintiffs can recover punitive damages.” Valore v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 700 F.Supp.2d 52, 83 (D.D.C. 2010) (concerning damages under FSIA); Ests. of Ungar ex rel. Strachman v. Palestinian Auth., 304 F. Supp. 2d 232, 267 (D.R.I. 2004) (finding that under ATA plaintiffs can recover “both pecuniary damages

² The Estate of John F. O'Neill, the late father of 9/11 victim John P. O'Neill, Sr., was added by Notice of Amendment to this case against Iran (ECF No. 5225) and has the consent of the personal representative of John P. O'Neill, Sr. to pursue claims and obtain a damages judgment against the Taliban. The Estate of John F. O'Neill is also included as a proposed additional plaintiff in a related motion to add parties against the Taliban being filed in this case as well in case the Court determines that the Estate of John F. O'Neill should first be added to the case against the Taliban before obtaining a damages judgment.

... and also for non-economic damages, including loss of companionship, society, and mental anguish experienced by the victim's surviving family members, including his siblings"); see also Miller v. Arab Bank, PLC, 372 F. Supp. 3d 33, 41 (E.D.N.Y. 2019) (ruling that plaintiffs were entitled to solatium damages under the ATA); Lelchook v. Commerzbank AG, 2011 WL 4087448, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 2, 2011) (allowing plaintiffs to pursue claims for solatium damages is consistent with Congress's incorporation of traditional tort-law principles, under which such damages are available, into the ATA.); Smith ex rel. Smith v. Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, 262 F. Supp. 2d 217, 240 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (while punitive damages are not available under ATA, its civil action provision "provides for treble damages").

Plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit A are immediate family members of those killed on 9/11, as demonstrated by documentary evidence of their familial relationship to a 9/11 decedent, such as birth or marriage certificates, sworn affidavits, official documents, or other documents signed under penalty of perjury, which attest to a familial relationship eligible for recovery, and, in the case of a subsequently deceased family member, a death certificate or sworn affidavit which reflects that the claimant did not predecease the 9/11 victim. See Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 4-14, 18-19.

Plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit B are comprised of the estates of victims who perished on 9/11, in claims asserted by their personal representatives, as demonstrated by documentary evidence in the form of official documents from probate and administration proceedings from Surrogate's Court, Probate Court, Orphan's Court, and similar judicial bodies. See Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 4-14, 20-28.

With respect to each estate plaintiff (in both annexed Exhibit A and Exhibit B), the personal representative has provided the undersigned counsel with proof that he or she has been appointed by the court as the personal representative of the deceased relative and/or 9/11 decedent estate.

As liability has been established in this matter, each Moving Plaintiff is now entitled to damages in the amounts set forth in annexed Exhibit A and Exhibit B, which reflect the damage amounts previously established and applied by this Court in this and other related cases arising from the terrorists attacks on September 11, 2001 (the “9/11 Attacks”) or based upon expert economic reports submitted herewith. In accordance with the ATA, Moving Plaintiffs are entitled to their solatium, pain and suffering, and economic damages, as applicable, and are also entitled to treble damages and prejudgment interest. Further, each moving party estate of a 9/11 decedent is now entitled to compensatory damages for pain and suffering, as set forth in annexed Exhibit B, which are the same amounts as previously established by the Court in related cases arising from the 9/11 Attacks. Finally, such moving party estates of 9/11 decedents who have tendered expert economic reports at this time, as identified herein, in the Goldman Declaration, and in annexed Exhibit B, are entitled to economic damages.

B. Solatium Damages

Whereas Plaintiffs’ collective claims against Iran arose pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1605A(c) which provides an explicit right to solatium damages under the private right of action, Plaintiffs’ claims against the Taliban arise under a number of different statutory schemes including 18 U.S.C. § 2333(a) (the civil-damages provision of the ATA) and the common law. Courts addressing claims under the ATA have almost uniformly allowed “solatium damages in suits brought under the ATA regardless of the availability of such damages under the general tort law of the state in which the district court sits” as such damages evince the deterrent intent of the ATA as a mechanism in the fight against terrorism. See Rosenberg v. Lashkar-e-Taiba, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 87724, at *75-*76 (E.D.N.Y. July 5, 2016); see also Lelchook v.

Commerzbank AG, 2011 WL 4087448, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 2, 2011) (“permitting Plaintiffs to pursue claims for solatium damages is consistent with both the purpose of the ATA, and Congress’ intention to incorporate traditional tort-law principles into the statute”); Estate of Henkin v. Kuveyt Turk Katilim Bankasi, A.S., 495 F. Supp. 3d 144, 152-53 (E.D.N.Y. 2020). “Family members do not need to be present for the terrorist attacks to recover under the ATA, because ‘a terrorist attack is precisely the sort of situation in which presence at the time is not required in light of the severity of the act and the obvious range of potential grief and distress that directly results from such a heinous act.’” Miller v. Arab Bank, PLC, 372 F. Supp. 3d 33, 41 (E.D.N.Y. 2019). In short, courts addressing the viability of solatium claims under the ATA have adopted an almost-uniform view that solatium damages are available under the ATA in the same manner that they are available under the private right of action under 28 U.S.C. § 1605A(c) of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act.

Analyzing the solatium claims of the families of the Havlish victims who perished in the 9/11 Attacks, Magistrate Judge Maas recommended that solatium damages be awarded to the immediate family members of the victims of the 9/11 Attacks in the following amounts:

Relationship of Decedent	Solatium Award
Spouse	$12,500,000
Parent	$8,500,000
Child	$8,500,000
Sibling	$4,250,000

ECF No. 2618 at 11.

These exact amounts were adopted by this Court in its October 3, 2012 Order, ECF No. 2623, and applied to the solatium claims against the Taliban. See ECF Nos. 2618, 2623, 2624.

The solatium losses suffered by the Exhibit A Plaintiffs before the Court in this application are legally and factually comparable to those suffered by the plaintiffs in Havlish, Ashton, Bauer, Hoglan, O'Neill, and Burnett. As such, Plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit A respectfully request that the Court grant awards of solatium to the immediate family members identified in annexed Exhibit A in the same amounts indicated herein, consistent with this Court's application of those values established and applied in Havlish against the Taliban, and subsequently adopted and applied to plaintiffs in the Ashton, Bauer, Hoglan, O'Neill, and Burnett cases against other defendants.

C. Pain and Suffering Damages for Estates

As noted above, plaintiffs identified in annexed Exhibit B include the personal representatives of the estates of individuals who were killed in the 9/11 Attacks, which seek compensatory damages for the decedent's pain and suffering. This Court previously assessed the entitlement and value of pain and suffering awards to estates for their decedents' deaths in this litigation. ECF Nos. 2618 at 7-9.

For the reasons articulated by this Court previously, the estates set forth in annexed Exhibit B respectfully request that the Court grant awards for the decedent's pain and suffering in the amount of Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) per estate. See id. at 9; ECF No. 2624 at 1, 3-4 (Judge Daniels awarding $2,000,000 per estate). See Goldman Declaration ¶ 20.

D. Economic Damages for Estates

Economic damages are specifically contemplated in terrorism litigation, whether under the FSIA, the ATA or otherwise. The economic damages provision is "designed to compensate [a] decedent's heirs-at-law for economic losses which result from [the] decedent's premature death." Flatow v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 999 F. Supp. 1, 27 (D.D.C. 1998); see also Ungar, 304 F. Supp. 2d at 264-65 (its legislative history "indicates that the ATA was to be construed broadly” and giving weight to its co-sponsor’s statement that the ATA “‘empowers victims with all the weapons available in civil litigation,’” suggesting “that Congress intended that the full range of damages should be available to persons entitled to bring actions pursuant to § 2333(a).”). Accordingly, “the beneficiaries of each decedent’s estate [are] ... entitled to recover the present value of economic damages, including lost wages that the decedents might reasonably have been expected to earn but for their wrongful deaths.” Valore, 700 F. Supp. 2d at 81-82 (citing Heiser v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 466 F.Supp.2d 229 (D.D.C. 2006)). Thus, sponsors of terrorist attacks that kill victims are routinely “liable for the economic damages caused to decedents’ estates.” Roth v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 78 F. Supp. 3d 379, 399-400 (D.D.C. 2015) (quoting Valore, 700 F.Supp.2d at 78).

Previously, this Court awarded economic damages in Iran and Taliban cases for the “economic losses stemming from the wrongful death of the decedent[.]” See ECF No. 2623 at 2-3. In doing so, it adopted the economic loss calculations set forth in the plaintiffs’ economic expert reports.

Certain of the Estates set forth in annexed Exhibit B and as specifically identified and set forth therein,³ and which provided economic expert reports, transmitted to the Court in the Goldman Declaration, seek economic damages, similar to the plaintiffs in the prior Taliban and Iran cases in this Court under the standards set in the District of Columbia cases cited herein. Goldman Declaration ¶¶ 21-28.

As described at length in the Goldman Declaration, in these cases, plaintiffs retained the services of an expert, John F. Beauzile, who possesses a Master’s Degree in Actuarial Science from Columbia University (“Expert”), to evaluate the economic losses resulting from decedent’s death as a result of the 9/11 Attacks. Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 21-28.

As described in more detail in the Goldman Declaration, and the Expert’s Declaration (which is Exhibit D to the Goldman Declaration), we obtained, generally through a Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”) request, entire September 11th Victim Compensation Fund (“VCF”) files for a substantial number of the O’Neill plaintiffs.⁴ Those files, along with other materials provided by the clients, contained various economic expert reports, VCF applications, VCF work papers and distribution plans, VCF determinations, underlying economic documents, and the like. Using methodology and assumptions described in his declaration, relying on earlier expert reports, determinations by the VCF, and other documents, the Expert prepared up-to-date economic loss expert reports, copies of which are deemed appended to the Expert’s Declaration (Exhibit D) and being provided to the Court under Seal (“Expert Reports”). Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 21-28. See August 23, 2021 Order, ECF No. 7067.

Based on the foregoing, the Moving Plaintiffs respectfully ask that this Court award economic damages to the estate set forth in annexed Exhibit B in the amounts stated therein, as supported by the Expert Reports.

E. Treble Damages

Moving Plaintiffs submit that, under the express terms of the ATA, they “shall recover threefold the damages” awarded. See 18 U.S.C. § 2333(a) (emphasis added). The trebling of the damages award in these circumstances is mandated by the use of the word “shall”. See United States v. Kahn, 5 F.4th 167, 174 (2d Cir. 2021) (holding “[t]he word ‘shall,’ in a statute, indicates a command; what follows the word ‘shall’ is ‘mandatory, not precatory’”).

⁴ We are still awaiting receipt of additional files which has adversely become impacted by both “normal” delays in receiving responses to FOIA requests and COVID.

Therefore, Moving Plaintiffs submit that each of the values awarded for compensatory damages should be trebled to accord with the mandatory trebling language in the ATA. A separate column is included on Exhibit A and Exhibit B indicating the final judgment after trebling of the damages values.

F. Punitive Damages

Moving Plaintiffs are also entitled to punitive damages under the FSIA. 28 U.S.C. § 1605A(c)(4). In the Havlish Report and Recommendation on damages, the magistrate judge explained that a “3.44 ratio ‘has been established as the standard ratio applicable to cases arising out of’ terrorist attacks.” ECF No. 2618 at 13 (quoting Est. of Bland v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 831 F. Supp. 2d 150, 158 (D.D.C. 2011)). This Court adopted that recommendation and awarded punitive damages on each compensatory damages category at a ratio of 3.44 (punitive) to 1 (compensatory). ECF No. 2623 at 2. The Court has applied that ratio to awards for plaintiffs in other related cases. See, e.g., ECF No. 3175 at 3 (Magistrate Judge Maas Report and Recommendation to apply a 3.44 punitive multiplier); ECF No. 3229 at 1 (Judge Daniels adopting in its entirety Judge Maas’s Report and Recommendation to apply a 3.44 multiplier); ECF No. 3300 at 1 and Exhibit A (Judge Daniels applying 3.44 punitive multiplier to claims in Ashton).

However, in Hoglan, another case in the In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001 multidistrict litigation, Magistrate Judge Netburn recommended that the plaintiffs’ request for punitive damages be denied without prejudice. ECF No. 3363 at 28. Judge Daniels adopted Magistrate Judge Netburn’s Report in its entirety, denying without prejudice the plaintiffs’ request for punitive damages. ECF No. 3384 at 6.

In light of the Court’s decision in related litigation to defer determination of punitive damage issues until a later stage of the litigation, Plaintiffs herein request permission to address the issue of punitive damages at a later date. See, e.g., ECF No. 3666 (Judge Daniels’ Order in Burnett authorizing plaintiffs to make an application for punitive damages at a later date consistent with any future rulings of the Court).

G. Prejudgment Interest

An award of prejudgment interest is within the sound discretion of a trial court and is warranted when plaintiffs are delayed in recovering compensation for non-economic injuries caused by acts of terrorism. See Baker v. Socialist People’s Libyan Arab Jamahirya, 775 F. Supp. 2d 48, 86 (D.D.C. 2011). This Court awarded the Havlish plaintiffs prejudgment interest at a rate of 4.96% on their pain and suffering damages awards, to be calculated from September 11, 2001, until the date of judgment. ECF No. 2618 at 13-14. This Court, recognizing that prejudgment interest was appropriate in cases such as these cases, adopted the magistrate judge’s reasoning, finding that an award of prejudgment interest was appropriate and accepting the rate of 4.96%, as proposed by the Havlish plaintiffs’ expert.

After the Havlish award, plaintiffs in Ashton and Bauer proposed, and the Court agreed, that prejudgment simple interest at the New York State statutory rate of nine percent per annum was appropriate in cases where the injuries arose in New York and the prejudgment interest used in Havlish, 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually, should be reserved for only those cases where the injuries arose in other states. See ECF Nos. 3229 at 2, 3300 at 1, 3341 at 1.

The Second Circuit has held that New York State’s statutory prejudgment interest rate should apply to the damages awarded to World Trade Center complex leaseholders in their litigation against American Airlines and United Airlines brought under the federal Air Transportation Safety and System Stabilization Act (“ATSSSA”). Pub. L. No. 107-42, 115 Stat. 230 (2001) (codified as amended at 49 U.S.C. § 40101); In re Sept. 11 Litig., 802 F.3d 314, 343 (2d Cir. 2015). In that case, the Second Circuit concluded that a federal cause of action under the ATSSSA must look to state rules concerning prejudgment interest. Id. Accordingly, the Second Circuit held that New York's statutory prejudgment interest rate of nine percent as opposed to a lower rate crafted under federal law, had to be applied to the plaintiffs' claims related to the 9/11 Attacks. Id.

However, more recently, in Hoglan, Magistrate Judge Netburn recommended that the 4.96 percent interest rate for prejudgment interest should be applied to all of the solatium claims. ECF No. 3363 at 28-29. Judge Daniels adopted Magistrate Judge Netburn's Hoglan Report in its entirety and applied the interest rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually to all of the claims. ECF No. 3384 at 6. Thereafter, in Burnett/Iran II, the Court again awarded prejudgment interest of 4.96 per annum, compounded annually.

In light of the Court's decisions in Hoglan and Burnett, applying the 4.96 percent rate to prejudgment interest, the Moving Plaintiffs respectfully request that the clerk be directed to award prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually, running from September 11, 2001, until the date of the judgment.

III. CONCLUSION

For all of the reasons herein, the Goldman Declaration, in the papers previously submitted to this Court in support of damages against the Taliban and Iran in this MDL, and as previously decided by this Court, the Moving Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Honorable Court enter an Order:
